We dedicate our show to Claire Cornell.

The members of the English Setter Club of Phoenix had to say good-bye to our dear friend Claire Cornell last year. Claire passed away on April 28, 2021, after a long struggle with some health issues. Claire and her husband Chris were the backbone of our club for many years.

Claire and Chris were married in 1972. They got their first English Setter, Queen, in 1976. Queen led the Cornells to become members of the English Setter Club of Phoenix. Queen has the distinct honor of being the first, and for many, many years, the only English Setter Obedience Champion (OTCH), trained and shown by Chris.

Claire was a board member, treasurer, and president of the club and volunteered as show secretary for several years during the glory days of our club when our entries were close to 100.

Claire showed in obedience and got CDs on three English Setters. After Chris retired from the Arizona Department of Transportation, Claire and Chris moved to Sequim WA in the year 2000 with two dogs, an English Setter named Ashley, who was bred by Yvonne Ward, and a Flat Coat named Dana. After Ashley passed away in 2006, Claire and Chris rescued a tri ES bitch named Elizabeth.

Claire donated many years of volunteer service to Welfare for Animals Guild (WAG), finding homes for many dogs.

Throughout her life, Claire was passionate about animals, especially dogs and cats. After retiring, she spent many years associated with WAG. She volunteered her time, conducting interviews of prospective homes for WAG dogs.

Her contributions to the English Setter Club of Phoenix from the mid 1970s until 2000 were numerous and much appreciated.

We raise our hats in tribute to this wonderful lady and all she meant to English Setters in Phoenix and Arizona through many years.
